

Trunk Control Glossary

Core: muscles in the abdomen and back that work together to support your spine and hold you upright

Righting Reactions: reflexes present from birth that allows the head and body to always be aligned during movements

Trunk: aka core; muscles in the abdomen and back that work together to support your spine and hold you upright

